

Storyboards

On campus food delivery

Kristina Vignas Storyboard

George is a college student that doesn't have time to get food on a regular basis because needs to do hw and study for his test.

George never has time to eat so he eats a lot of junk food. Even though his mom warns him not to.

George would walk the cafeteria to get food but its so far from campus and the lines are very long.

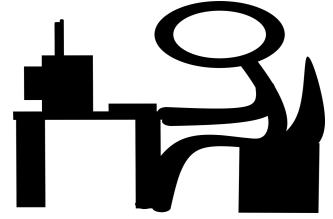

Delivery will take one hour

George orders food using the college food delivery app so he can save time and get more work done.

Food delivery Table

George doing his work
while his food is delivered

The food gets delivered downstairs of georges dorm. He has been doing tone of work since he ordered food

George gets notified that his food arrived and he is so happy about the time he managed to save.